Numb. 9079.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday July 27, to Tuesday July 30, 1751.

Turin, July 12.

ACCORDING to the Advices we receive here daily from Vaudier, the King continues to drink the Waters at that Place with great Succeſs; and 'tis ſaid his Majeſty propoſes taking a Tour from thence to Feneſtrelles, to examine the Condition of the Fortifications of that Place, ſo that he is not expected here till the 5th or 6th of next Month, A Courier is arrived here from the Count de Sartirane, Envoy Extraordinary from this Court to that of Genoa, with Diſpatches relating to the Affairs of Corſica.

Naples, July 13. Their Majeſties came here laſt Friday from Portici; and the next Day there was a grand Appearance at Court on Occaſion of its being the Feaſt of St. Amelia, whoſe Name the Queen bears. We have received Advice, that three of our Gallies, being on a Cruize, came up with a Tuneſian Corſair on the 28th paſt off Lapari, and ſoon made themſelves Maſters of her: She had 18 Guns on board; and her Crew, conſiſting of about 30 Men, were all ſent to work at the Gallies.

Petersbourg, July 13. Within theſe few Days paſt, a great Number of Workmen have been ſent, by the Empreſs's Order, to Petershoff, in order to repair and beautify the Royal Palace and Gardens of that Place. Laſt Week her Imperial Majeſty made a numerous Promotion of Subaltern Officers, not only in the three Regiments of her Foot Guards, but likewiſe in thoſe of her Horſe Guards. Count Verthern, late a Major General in the Service of the Elector of Bavaria, is ſoon expected here, in order to enter into the Service of this Court in the ſame Quality. Count Poſſe, the Swediſh Miniſter, is taking his Leave of the other Foreign Miniſters, being to ſet out To-morrow or next Day for Stockholm. Yeſterday a Man of War of 86 Guns was launched at the Dock belonging to the Admiralty, and appeared to be an exceeding fine Ship. By an Expreſs arrived here a few Days ago from Ruſſian Finland, we received Advice of the Death of Lieutenant General Grouſchoff, Commander of her Imperial Majeſty's Forces quartered in that Country, but as yet no one is appointed to ſucceed him. The Departure of Count Lynar from Copenhagen is again deferred; and 'tis now ſaid it will not take Place till after that Miniſter has finiſhed a Negociation he began ſome Time ago with the Miniſters of the Great Duke of Ruſſia, concerning the Dutchy of Holſtein.

Breſlau, July 20. On Tueſday laſt there fell, in the Principality of Munſterberg, a prodigious Quantity of Hail, and ſo very large, that it has done an infinite deal of Damage to all the Fruits of the Earth. We learn from Fauſtadt and Liſſa, that the Locuſts begin to appear in ſuch Numbers, that they have great Reaſon to be apprehenſive of their doing as much Miſchief this Year as they did the laſt.

Vienna, July 21. On Monday laſt the Emperor, accompanied by Prince Charles of Lorrain, and attended by ſeveral of the principal Lords of the Court, arrived in this City; and Yeſterday his Imperial Majeſty ſigned ſeveral Diſpatches; after which he went to Schonbrun, to ſee the young Archdutcheſſes; and this Morning he ſet out, with the Prince his Brother, on his Return to Preſbourg. In Conſequence of the Scheme which is on Foot for the better Regulation of the Commerce of Hungary, Magazines are going to be erected there in divers Places, in which are to be depoſited all the Surplus Grain, and other unperiſhable Productions of that Kingdom; and the Duties that uſed to be paid upon all Corn, Wine and Cattle, are going to be conſiderably leſſened, in order to facilitate, by that Means, the Sale of ſuch Part of thoſe Commodities as ſhall be tranſported from Hungary into the Hereditary Countries. The Departure of the Court for the Camp at Peſt is again deferred for ſome Days, and 'tis now believed will not take Place till the 4th of next Month. Count Colloredo, Vice Chancellor of the the Empire, came here on Sunday laſt from Preſbourg; from whence the Secretary of State, Baron Bartenſtein, will likewiſe arrive To-day or To-morrow. A few Days ago a Courier was diſpatched to Count Cajetan Kollowrath, with an Account of the Death of his Brother, and of his being appointed, by his Will, univerſal Legatee. We are informed by Numbers of Perſons who have been from hence to view the Camp at Peſt, that the Troops go daily thro' their Exerciſe, and make a very fine Appearance; and that they are to continue ſo doing till they have been reviewed by their Imperial Majeſties. We have received Advice from Manheim of the Death of General Count Berlichingen, but it is not as yet known to whom her Imperial Majeſty will give the Command of his Regiment of Cuiraſſiers. The Aulick Counſellor, M. Gartner, arrived here laſt Week from Dreſden, to which Court he went ſome Time ago to execute a private Commiſſion from their Imperial Majeſties.

Stockholm, July 23. The Court is ſtill at Drottingholm, and will not come hither, as 'tis believed, till towards the Time fixed for the Coronation; in the mean while all neceſſary Preparations are making for that great Ceremony. The rebuilding of the Houſes conſumed by the late Fires, goes on with great Expedition; and there arrive daily, from divers Provinces of this Kingdom, Numbers of Workmen who are all immediately employed. Count Panin, Envoy Extraordinary from the Empreſs of Ruſſia, continues to have Conferences with Count Teſſin, and the other Miniſters of this Court, in Relation to the Means that are to be employed for eſtabliſhing the Peace of the North. The Directors of our Eaſt-India Company have given Notice, that they will begin to put up to Sale, on the 9th of next Month, at Gothenbourg, the Effects lately arrived in that Port on board the Frederick Adolphus. Baron Claude de Ralamb, Governor of Sudermania, is appointed a Member of the Council of the Finances.

Warſaw, July 24. We have received Advice by an Expreſs, that Count Sapieha, Great Chancellor of Lithuania, died on the 6th Inſtant at his Seat at Liſowody in Podolia, in the 71ſt Year of his Age; by whoſe Deceaſe Prince Czartoryſki, Vice Chancellor of Lithuania, ſucceeds to that important Poſt.

Copenhagen, July 24. The King is expected here on Tueſday next from Friedenſbourg; and 'tis ſaid, that ſoon after his Return, a Miniſter will be appointed to go to the Court of Sweden, in order to reſide there on the Part of his Majeſty. Several Ships belonging to the Merchants of this City, bound for the Weſt-Indies, are now ready to put to Sea, and will ſail with the firſt fair Wind.

Ratisbon, July 26. We are aſſured that Count Hohenembs will be appointed to the vacant Poſt of General of Horſe of the Empire. On Saturday laſt arrived here, by Water, two hundred and ſixty Recruits, moſt of whom were raiſed in Swabia; and Yeſterday they continued their Route for Hungary, in order to be incorporated in the Imperial Regiments which are quartered in that Kingdom. The laſt Letters we received from Dreſden ſay, that the King had conferred the Order of the White Eagle on the young Hereditary Prince, Son of the Prince Royal of Saxony.

Franckfort, July 29. Several Pruſſian Officers are lately arrived in this Neighbourhood, to raiſe Recruits for their reſpective Regiments. We learn from Mayence, that the Elector returned there on Saturday laſt from his late Tour; and on Sunday received a Viſit from Prince Frederick of Deux Ponts, who, after Dinner, returned to Slangenbad, in order to wait for the Elector Palatine, who did not arrive there till Yeſterday. The laſt Letters from Stuttgard ſay, that Prince Henry of Pruſſia had been received in the moſt affectionate Manner at the Court of Wirtembourg, where nothing was omitted that could poſſibly procure him the leaſt Pleaſure or Amuſement.

Duſſeldorp, July 30. Two conſiderable Bodies of Recruits for the Imperial Regiments which are quartered in Luxembourg, and other Places in the Auſtrian Low Countries, paſſed through this City a few Days ago. We learn from Bonn, that on the 26th Inſtant the Elector of Cologn diſpoſed, in Favour of Baron d'Aſſebourg, of the Employment of Grand Maſter of his Houſhold, vacant by the Death of the late Count Hohenzollern. The ſame Letters add, that the Count de Guebriant, Envoy Extraordinary from his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty to his Serene Electoral Highneſs, had ſent an Expreſs to his Court, with Diſpatches which were thought to be of great Importance. Laſt Sunday Evening there paſſed by here, upon the Rhine, a very large Quantity of Timber, deſtined for Holland.

Bruſſels, Auguſt 1. Yeſterday Morning about three hundred Recruits, who have been newly raiſed in the different Towns and Villages of this Province, were reviewed by the Marqueſs de Botta d'Adorno, and are to be incorporated in our national Regiments, to fill up the Vacancies in them, occaſioned by Death and Deſertion. Publick Prayers are ordered to be put up in all the Churches of this Province for fair Weather, the late high Winds and heavy Rains having done great Damage to the Corn and Fruits in this Country.

Hague, Auguſt 4. Meſſ. Monge and Ryſwyk have taken the uſual Oaths, before the Council of State, the firſt in Quality of Lieutenant Colonel, and the other in that of Major, in the Regiment of Foot of Villegas. The Prince of Heſſe Philipſthall is arrived here from his Government of Tournay. We learn from Boiſlele-Duc, that General Baron Cronſtrom, Governor of that Place, and of the Forts thereunto belonging, died a few Days ago at his Seat at Nemelaar, in a very advanced Age.

Hague, Auguſt 6. The States General, upon the Recommendation of his Serene Highneſs the Prince of Orange, have conferred on Prince Louis of Brunſwick Wolfenbuttel, Field Marſhal of the Armies of this Republick, the Government of the City of Bois-le-Duc, and of all the Forts thereunto belonging, in the Room of the late General Cronſtrom.

Lord-Chamberlain's Office, July 29.

Orders for the Change of the Mourning for his late Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales on Sunday the 4th Day of Auguſt next, viz.

The Men to continue in Black, and to wear coloured Swords and Buckles.

The Ladies to wear black Silk or Velvet, coloured Ribbons, Fans and Tippetts.
